4. Bingle product

and insurance purchase and renewal*4.1 Bingle Website content

The Bingle Website contains both information of a general nature about Bingle and Bingle's products and services, and also enables you to purchase and pay for insurance products and services online.

4.2 Completing transactions on the Bingle Website

1. When entering into a transaction via the Bingle Website, whether it be the issuance of an insurance contract, a renewal payment, or a transaction relating to any other product or service, the transaction will not be completed until an "Electronic Instruction" (being any electronic instruction, information, message, request or communication issued or transmitted to Bingle via the Bingle Website) containing the acceptance from you to Bingle's offer, or the confirmation of payment from you, whichever is applicable, has been received and processed by Bingle, and any specific steps or requirements as set out in this clause 4, have been complied with.
2. You acknowledge that the transmission of your acceptance or the confirmation of any payment, made through an Electronic Instruction may not be received by Bingle in accordance with this clause 4 for reasons beyond either parties' reasonable control including, but not limited to, mechanical, software, computer, telecommunications, or electronic failure, or the omission or failure of third party service providers or systems. You further acknowledge that, to the extent permitted by law, Bingle is not liable to you in any way for any loss or damage at all and however caused, arising directly or indirectly in connection with the transmission of an Electronic Instruction through the Bingle Website, or any failure to receive an Electronic Instruction for whatever reason.

4.3 Purchasing insurance policies

1. Where the Bingle Website enables you to purchase insurance products or services online:
 - a. The parties may enter into an insurance policy using the Bingle Website by Bingle making an electronic offer via the Bingle Website and you electronically communicating your acceptance of that offer via the Bingle Website to Bingle;
 - b. Bingle may act on and process all completed Electronic Instructions transmitted or issued through the Bingle Website without further consent from or reference to you; and
 - c. Bingle may treat an Electronic Instruction as authentic and is under no obligation to investigate the authenticity or authority of persons issuing or transmitting such Electronic Instructions, or to verify the accuracy and completeness of such Electronic Instructions.
2. Creating a binding insurance contract with Bingle via the Bingle Website is a two-step process:
 - a. The first step is to create a quick quote for the insurance product you are interested in and have selected. Upon completion by you of all required details, the Bingle Website will provide you with a quick quote. A quick quote can be saved and will remain valid and accessible on the Bingle Website for up to 7 days; and
 - b. If you wish to take out insurance in accordance with a quick quote provided to you by Bingle via the Bingle Website, then, upon successful completion by you of all additional required details, step two enables you to accept that quick quote and create a binding insurance agreement with a corresponding Bingle policy number.

3. When entering into a contract via the Bingle Website, you will be taken to have communicated your acceptance to an offer of insurance from Bingle only when:
 - a. the Electronic Instruction containing the acceptance from you enters and is recorded in the main Bingle database;
 - b. a record is created and stored in the Bingle database;
 - c. a Bingle policy number is generated by the Bingle database; and
 - d. Bingle receives all required details of a current and valid credit card which you are authorised to use, which is of a credit card type accepted by Bingle, and to which Bingle is able to charge a premium.
 4. A binding insurance contract is conditional on Bingle being able to successfully charge against your nominated credit card and Bingle receiving payment of your applicable premium.
 5. Where a transaction is entered into between Bingle and you via the Bingle Website, a policy number will be issued by Bingle via the Bingle Website. However, a binding insurance agreement is not conditional on the issuance or receipt by you of a policy number. Therefore, the failure by you to receive a policy number via the Bingle Website does not invalidate or otherwise prejudice the existence of an insurance contract or transaction entered into using the Bingle Website.
 6. Bingle may or may not issue a paper confirmation of the insurance policy. The existence of a binding contract is not conditional on Bingle issuing, or you receiving, a paper confirmation of the transaction.
 7. You are responsible for ensuring that you receive a policy number and should contact Bingle if one is not received.
 8. Where you only complete a quick quote on the Bingle Website a binding insurance agreement is not created. A binding insurance agreement will only be created once Bingle receives your full premium payment by credit card on the Bingle website.

4.4 Renewal payments

1. The Bingle Website only offers an online facility for renewal payment with selected credit cards.
2. The policy renewal notice will indicate how online renewal payment can be made.
3. Online renewal payment can be made by following the "Pay your renewal" link on the Bingle Website.
4. When making a payment for a policy renewal via the Bingle Website, you will be taken to have renewed that policy only when:
 - a. the Electronic Instruction containing the policy number, premium amount due and credit card details, and an instruction from you to renew the policy, enters and is recorded in the relevant payment database;
 - b. Bingle receives all required details of a current and valid credit card which you are authorised to use, which is of a credit card type accepted by Bingle, and to which Bingle is able to charge the renewal premium;
 - c. a record is created and stored in the payment database;
 - d. a Bingle receipt number is generated by the payment system; and
 - e. the main Bingle database is updated with information from the payment database.

5. A binding insurance contract is conditional on Bingle being able to successfully charge against your nominated credit card and Bingle receiving payment for all applicable renewal amounts due for the policy (or policies) being renewed.
 6. Bingle, at its discretion, may or may not issue a confirmation of the renewal payment. The existence of a valid payment is not conditional on Bingle issuing, or you receiving, a paper confirmation of the transaction.

5. Payments

1. All payments for any insurance products or other services purchased via the Bingle Website must be paid in full by clear funds by the due date specified in the relevant confirmation.
2. Unless provided for otherwise, all payments referred to in (1) above are to be made by selected credit cards. You must therefore provide to Bingle details of your current and valid credit card, including:
 - a. credit card type;
 - b. name on credit card;
 - c. credit card number; and
 - d. expiry date.

6. Valuation tools, calculators, games and other features

1. The Bingle Website may contain or make available various tools, calculation devices, software programs, games or other features which assist you in calculating the optimal insurance policy, premium, or level of excess for you. The Bingle Website may also contain other useful information.
2. Whilst Bingle has undertaken reasonable steps to ensure that any such features or information as described in (1) above are accurate and free from defect, Bingle does not warrant the accuracy, adequacy, correctness or completeness of these features, which are provided on an "as is" basis.
